9:30-12:00, Sunday September 8th, 2019 | Paris, France

AG2R La Mondiale

104, boulevard Haussmann 75008 Paris

Session Moderators:

- Hugues Létourneau, Manager, Global Unions Committee on Workers' Capital
- David Wood, Director, Initiative for Responsible Investment at the Hauser Institute for Civil Society, Center for Public Leadership, at the Harvard Kennedy School of Government

9:00 – 9:30	REGISTRATION
9:30 – 9:45	Welcome and Introductions Welcome from session moderators, participant introductions and workshop objectives.
9:45 – 10:35	Organising and empowering trustees to improve capital stewardship in their fund portfolios This session will discuss strategies that trustees can take individually and collectively, inside or outside their funds, to secure tangible results on capital stewardship-related matters. Trustees will reflect on experiences in driving improvements in their fund's practices and ensuring that those practices have impact.
10:35 – 10:50	BREAK
10:50 – 11:45	Strategic actions for trustees: building a movement to push asset managers from talk to action This session will update participants on the CWC's Asset Manager Accountability Initiative since September 2018. Trustees will be invited to think critically about the strengths and weaknesses of existing tools (e.g.: asset manager reports, PRI assessments, CWC report cards) to address weaknesses in the stewardship practices of asset managers on workers' rights issues.
11:45 – 12:00	Closing Remarks and Wrap Up
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch (provided for workshop participants only)
